on-site legal advice also available*

Singapore, 13 September 2002 - United Overseas Bank Limited (UOB) launches Sunday Banking at five of its branches this Sunday, 15 September 2002, with a host of exciting promotions.

From 15 September to 13 October 2002, customers who visit UOB branches at Toa Payoh, Somerset, Parkway Parade, Tampines Mall and Holland Village on Sundays will stand a chance to win a return trip to Sydney for two. Free gifts will also be given to the first 20 customers at each branch who speak to the Bank's Customer Relationship Managers on their home loan needs, while a $100 Sichuan Dou Hua Restaurant voucher will be given to each customer who signs up for a home loan.

As an added convenience to customers, UOB has tied up with law firms and valuation companies to provide on-site legal and valuation advice to customers who visit the branches on Sundays.

Said Mdm Sim Puay Suang, Executive Vice President, Personal Financial Services, "Rather than merely opening our branches on Sunday, we have gone one step further by providing customers with a one-stop service catering to all their home financing needs. In addition to being able to discuss their home loan requirements with dedicated Customer Relationship Managers and Branch Managers, we also provide customers with instant in-principle approvals, on-the-spot valuation and on-site legal advice on their home loans. This really saves them a lot of hassle and we believe our customers will appreciate the value-added service that we are providing."
