

BAY GRANDSTAND

Spectators at the Bay Grandstand will hear the roar beneath their feet as the cars race past the picturesque waterfront stretch and drive underneath the Bay Grandstand, a signature feature of the Singapore circuit. This section of track has proven to be an Achilles' heel for many of the drivers as it requires them to negotiate four angled turns (16 to 19) in quick succession. Patrons have access to Zone 3 and Zone 4.

