*Terms and Conditions

The Incremental Interest Amount is defined as the increase in the interest amount on the CashPlus account in the Applicant's April and May 2013 CashPlus statement respectively from the Applicant's March 2013 statement. To enjoy the 50% cashback on the Incremental Interest Amount for April and May 2013 statement, there must be an increase in the total outstanding closing balance AND interest for April and May 2013 CashPlus statement from the Applicant's March 2013 statement. 50% cashback is only applicable to Incremental Interest Amount charged at the prevailing interest of 17.8% p.a. or 20.95% p.a. only. Customers who are currently under the 30% cashback promotion will not be eligible. The total cashback rewarded to Applicant is capped at S$100. Fees and charges are not considered as interest on the CashPlus account. The cashback shall be rounded down to the nearest cent and will be credited into the successful applicant's CashPlus account by end June 2013. In the event that the CashPlus account is or has been terminated or suspended between April and May 2013 or on the crediting date for any reason, the cashback shall be forfeited. Applicants shall continue to be bound by the Terms and Conditions governing UOB CashPlus. The decisions of UOB on all matters relating to this promotion are final, conclusive and binding. UOB shall not be obliged to give any reason or enter into any correspondence with any persons on any matter concerning this promotion. Notwithstanding anything in these Terms and Conditions, UOB reserves the right at any time at its sole discretion to determine and/or amend, by addition to, subtraction from or variation of, these Terms and Conditions without prior notification.
